Niles 'Cleanup' Drive Explored By Merchants

A cleanup campaign and more highway advertising for Niles were agreed upon Friday at a luncheon of the local Merchants Committee.

Meeting at Nello's, the businessmen, under President E. C. Parks decided to:

1. Take steps to move their Essanay sign across Highway 9 onto State-owned property, to give it more prominence.

2. Negotiate for another Essanay sign at the south entrance of town.

3. Investigate periodical "hosedowns" of the business streets by volunteer firemen.

4. Purchase four new- trash cans, painted white, with the legend: "Take Pride in Niles—Keep Your Town Clean."

5. Launch a drive to protect store windows on Halloween by coating them with calsomine powder, which school children would be urged to paint for prizes.

Much of the work can be financed with proceeds from the successful Essanay Days fete last June 7. Treasurer Robert Blacow reported $1050.98 in the committee's coffers, mostly from sale of programs and the Essanay queen contest.

Parks said the State Division of Highways has forwarded an application to permit the existing sign to be moved across Highway 9 where it can be more easily seen.

Parks and Stuart Nixon were authorized to get estimates on another sign for the south entrance to town, and to seek a site. Cost of the first sign was nearly $400.

Caesar DiGiulio will investigate cost of new trash cans, which the committee agreed are badly needed at the principal intersections to care for accumulated papers and debris. It was also agreed that a "Keep Niles Clean" campaign will be launched in the schools and among the merchants.

DiGiulio, a member of the volunteer fire department, guessed there might be some obstacles to having the firemen hose down the streets on off-weeks when county sweeping crews aren't operating. But he promised to explore the issue.

Parks also said the committee will investigate the possibility of brightening up Niles, and giving

IRVINGTON TRACT SET IN 60 DAYS

With luck, the first 250-home unit of Conway and Culligan's projected 1500 home tract south of Irvington ought to be started in 60 days.

This was the predicton today of B. R. Gillis, general manager for the San Mateo homebuilders.

Gillis said he is delighed at the ease with which Conway and Culligan have been able to surmount the few problems on sewage, drainage, etc., which affect the $15,000,000 development.

But he stressed financing and final approval of tract maps by Alameda County's planning commission and supervisors "make any start in less than two months a very optimistic prediction."

Preliminary maps were okehed by the planners three weeks ago. And easements for storm drainage to the Bay have been obtained. Since then, Conway and Culligan optioned a 37-acre piece next to its 152-acre Stevenson Ranch site, and then another 38-acre parcel.

The 37 acres belongs to Delphine Dunbar and John Joseph, while the 38 acres is owned by Joseph Rocha and his mother, Josephine.

This means, says Gillis, that Conway & Culligan's original plans for 1100 homes have been expanded to "about 1500." However, he said the company prefers not to issue rosy announcements, but would rather "let the public see what we mean by our actions," in building the tract.

The blueprints approved by the Planning Commission provide for a shopping center and a school, but not for parks and playgrounds, according to John Jay Thomas, commission secretary.

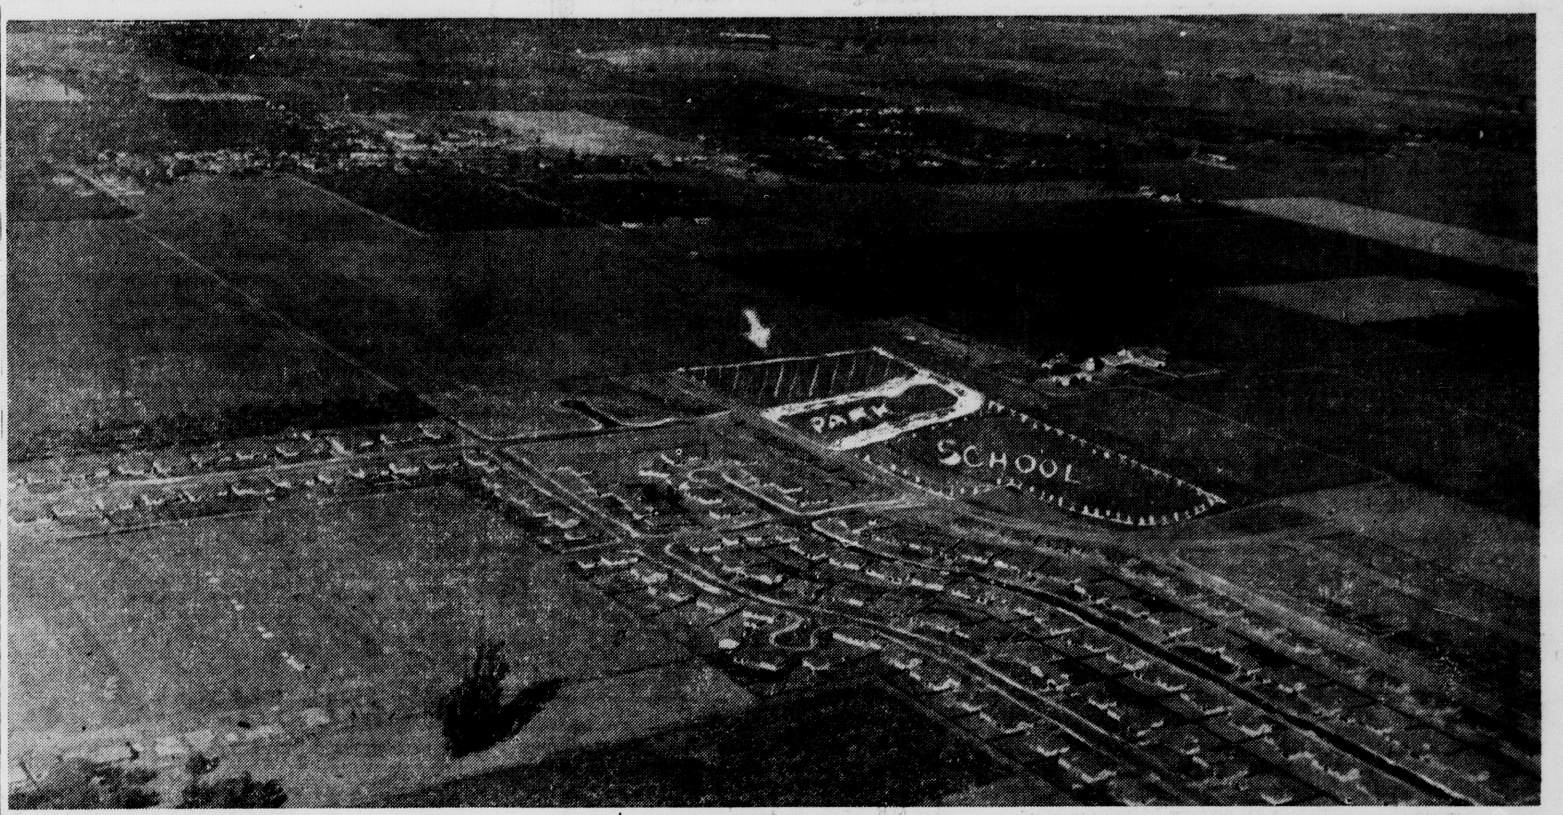
Newsstand Case

James G. Rader, 21, of Hayward, was fined $200 and placed on probation by Judge E. A. Quaresma last week after pleading guilty to charges of stealing a half-dozen newspaper racks in Centerville.

ATTACKERS SOUGHT

Sheriff's officers are seeking two men who allegedly administered a brutal, unprovoked beating to Charles B. Davis, 46, Wesley Hotel, early Tuesday morning in front of a Niles cafe. Davis, a steel mill worker, was treated for severe cuts about the face and loss of teeth.



THINGS TO COME—Register airphoto shows Glenmoor Tract, south of Centerville. Outlined at upper right are shopping center (arrow), scheduled to start in two months; park and schoolsite. At right is one of the subdivision's $16,750 homes.

'IT COULDN'T BE DONE'

Glamorous Glenmoor Brings New Kind of Tract to Centerville

The tract that couldn't be sold is readying its third hundred homes south of Centerville.

"And we haven't scratched the surface," says James R. Meyer, who parlayed his wife's hunch and his conviction that people will pay for a better-type house into what is shaping up to be a $16,000,000 "planned community" of 1100 homes.

Meyer is at 47 the youthful looking president of Glenmoor Homes, impressive collection of $15,000 and $20,000 houses in what were ploughed fields two years ago. Glenmoor is drawing envious eyes of the Bay Area's builders, rapt attention of its home-buyers.

Glenmoor is that marvel of the subdivider's catalogue, a "class" tract, something against the current trend toward cheap housing, now that the cream has been skimmed off the GI and Federal Housing feast.

Lured by Glenmoor's dozen or more attractive plans, solid cedar shingle and shake roofs, sleek lawns and wide curving streets, a covey of prosperous business and professional men and their families have emigrated from San Leandro and Oakland to start life anew in the sunny meadows of Washington Township.

Smart realtors said it couldn't be done. They told Meyer and his partners, James Reeder and Ralph Cotter, that they'd go broke building "millionaire's row" at Centerville.

Meyer and Co. proved how wrong the wiseacres were. The funny thing, says Jim Meyer, is that it was all here for the taking—"the only reason the big-house buyers didn't come before was that there weren't POPULAR—Most in demand in Glenmoor are the two floor-plans shown here. One at left contains 1484 square feet, sells for $16,750. At right is 1200-square-foot model, priced at $14,250. Some buyers modify plans to suit their tastes.

Niles Woman Nimrod Nips Hitch-Hiking Reptile

By STUART NIXON

Helen Cary, of Old Niles Canyon Road and Placerville, is an accomplished huntress who thinks nothing of slaying, skinning and eating a wandering bear. Therefore Mrs. Cary was only mildly startled last week when a hitch-hiking timber rattlesnake turned up in the back seat of her car here after a 200-mile ride.

She outsparred the angry poison-packer with a chair leg, slugged it silly and popped it into her deep-freeze with less ado than many a housewife makes over the evening spareribs.

"Not that I'm going to eat him," she explained, exhibiting the rigid reptile after the decision. "I eat bear, but never snake."

Bear, she says, tastes like pork, only better.

The incident began last Wednesday when Mrs. Cary, who won her spurs driving a truck and running a restaurant where the International Kitchen now stands, motored to her Sierra cabin above Placerville to pick up a few boxes of household goods.

"I took out three boxes of dishes and put them in the back seat," she relates. "When we got to Stockton, my two dogs, Rusty and Stinker, started raising cain. They wouldn't stay in the back seat. They jumped up front with me, and whimpered and wouldn't go in back.

"When we got to Niles, I went in the house. When I came out to get the dishes, here was this snake jumping all over the back seat, striking at the windows, trying to get out.

"I reached under the front seat where I keep this chair leg to keep the seat from sliding back. Then I opened the back door. The snake tried to bite me, but he just grazed the bandage on my bad hand. I hit him with the stick and stunned him. Then I mashed his head."

The snake turned out to be as big around as a man's wrist, and bore ten rattles and a button. Apparently he had crept into the box of dishes at the cabin. But Mrs. Cary discounts his viciousness.

"If he'd been a diamond-back," she says, "he'd have bitten me, sure."

Of her experience, she comments: "I've been hunting since I was nine, down in Tucson, Arizona. I've got a houseful of trophies. I've killed rattlesnakes before, but never in a car."

She explains she consigned the loser to the deepfreeze because she wanted to keep him fresh so her son Bob, who works at the local steel mill, could select choice

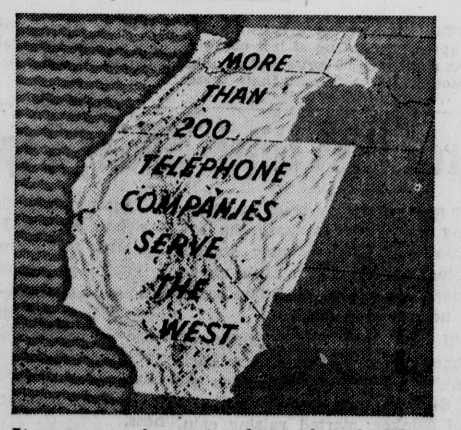
The West's 6,000,000th telephone was installed last week in the home of Master Sergeant (USMC) and Mrs. Lionel P. Williams.

WEST'S 6,000,000th TELEPHONE GOES TO WORK

Interstate Telegraph Company installs milestone instrument in Barstow, Calif.

A veteran of Korea and his wife are making calls this week over the West's 6,000,000th telephone. It was installed September 2nd by the Interstate Telegraph Company (an affiliate of the California Electric Power Company) which provides telephone service in Barstow and the surrounding territory. The Williams' telephone brings the total in the West to almost double what it was at the end of World War II — a remarkable growth record made possible by the combined efforts of more than 200 telephone companies.



It may surprise you to know that the West is served by more than 200 different telephone companies and the U. S. by over 5,200 companies. And the teamwork among them makes it possible for any telephone in the West to be connected with any of the 49,000,000 telephones in America. Surely one important reason for the West's sound growth is the cooperation among the telephone companies which serve it.

Telephone business is a community business

The telephone business is essentially a local business. Ninety percent of all telephone calls are local calls. And in the hundreds of communities served by the West's telephone companies, local people — your friends and neighbors — provide your telephone service, working constantly to furnish good service at low cost.

This demonstration was worth many hundreds of dollars to me!

I thought only a higher-priced car would suit me. But then I found out how much more Chevrolet offered for how much less!

You're "sitting pretty" behind the wheel

Take this Bel Air model. First thing you'll notice is the quality of the interior. Rich-looking appointments. Roomy seats with foam rubber cushions. Turn the key to start the engine and you're ready to go.

You can see all around

You look out and down through a wide, curved, one-piece windshield. The panoramic rear window and big side windows provide a clear view in all directions.

You get more power on less gas

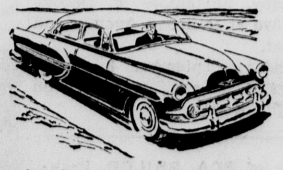
That's because Chevrolet's two great valve-in-head engines are high-compression engines. In Powerglide* models, you get the most powerful engine in Chevrolet's field — the new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame." Gearshift models offer the advanced 108-h.p "Thrift-King" engine.

Biggest brakes for smoother, easier stops

An easy nudge on the pedal brings smooth, positive response —right now! Chevrolet's improved brakes are the largest in the low-price field.

It's heavier for better roadability

You're in for a pleasant surprise at the smooth, steady, big-car ride of this new Chevrolet. One reason is that, model for model, Chevrolet will weigh up to 200 pounds more than the other low-priced cars.



You get greater getaway with the new Powerglide*

A lot finer performance on a lot less gas. That's what you get with the new Powerglide automatic transmission. There's no more advanced automatic transmission at any price.

And it's the lowest-priced line

A demonstration will show you that Chevrolet offers just about everything you could want. Yet it's the lowest-priced line in the low-price field.

*Combination of Powerglide automatic transmission and 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine optional on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models at extra cost.

Let us demonstrate all the advantages of buying a Chevrolet now!

By TONY ROGERS

Unable to hold a 4-1 lead, Centerville Bearcats let a Don Gilmore nine score four runs in the fifth inning last Sunday and go on to earn a 7-4 victory.

Three hits and two walks off Pitcher Frank Romero did the damage. The 'Cats had shown the way until then, scoring three runs in the second on as many passes plus two safeties.

San Francisco hurlers issued bingles only to Romero, Smith, Roderick and Faria while clubbing Romero for 13.

Gilmore 100 041 001	7	13	3

Grid Workouts Start Monday For Huskies

Football practice at Washington Hi starts Monday, Coach Clyde Voorhees Jr. announced today.

Varsity and lightweight prospects won't suit up till later in the week, however, confining early work to conditioning sprints in gym clothing.

As in the past four years, the varsity opens its season October 2 in a night tilt against the San Francisco Polytechnical Hi reserves. SCVAL play opens for the Huskies the following week against Los Gatos.

Voorhees expects the Campbell eleven to provide most of the league's class this fall. A formidable pack of returning linemen, plus a huge driving fullback make the Bucs the pre-season favorites.

Voorhees will try to equalize an inexperienced club with passing and his own invention, a "split-A." formation.

GRID SCHEDULE

October 2—Poly Reserves here.
October 9—*Los Gatos, here.
October 16—*James Lick, there.
October 23—*Santa Clara, here.
October 30—*Mt. View, there.
November 6—Bellarmine, there.
November 13—*Campbell, here.
November 20—*Fremont, there.

*League games. All except Lick game start at 8 p.m. Lick game starts at 3 p.m.

DECOTO SPLIT, BY SIDEWALK ZONE

Decoto's sidewalk issue was hot enough to fry an egg on today, with another session of the Chamber of Commerce called for tomorrow night to discuss it.

The meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the former fire house on Tenth Street, according to President Manuel Hidalgo, whose committee now is backing sidewalks for the whole town.

On September 1, a stormy public session brought out that the town is split on the issue of paying for sidewalks. R. L. De Cordoba, sidewalk committee chairman, said a petition circulated by his group showed 73 per cent of those living east of the Southern Pacific tracks want them, while only 15 per cent on the west side desire sidewalks. Therefore, he said, the district should involve only the eastern section.

Jack Faletti, former chamber president, charged DeCordoba's committee "exceeded its powers" in petitioning the Board of Supervisors to form a tax district to build sidewalks.

Hidalgo countered that his committee was within its rights, according to chamber by-laws. This resulted in a mass walkout of about half of the 60 persons

Those left voted favorably on a motion of confidence in the committee, presented by Supt. of Schools Harold Schoenfeld.

Last Friday night at a committee meeting, Robert Hendrick successfully moved to add three more members to the 10-man committee, and to circulate petitions asking for sidewalks for the entire town.

Additional members will include Bernie Joseph and two more

C'VILLE FIRE RATE SAID UNDER NEWARK

Claims by Newark's fire chief that fire-insurance rates for the Newark side of Glenmoor are lower than the Centerville side were disputed today by James R. Meyer, developer of the tract.

Chief Joe Pashote in a recent letter aimed at the Centerville Fire District, claimed Newark's rate was 27½ cents per $100 under that charged the major portion of the tract, which is in the Centerville district.

Today however Meyer said Pashote was in error, and that the Centerville side actually pays 10 cents per $100 less, or about $14 per home a year.

"That's because we're in Centerville Zone 1, not Zone 2, as Chief Pashote probably thinks," Meyer said. "I know. I write the insurance."

The controversy arose when Centerville began to argue that the entire tract should belong in that district. Five and a fraction houses inward from Blacow Road are in the Newark district.

GLENMOOR TRACT DRAWS ATTENTION

any big homes for them to buy."

A Chicago-born man whose father was a home-builder there, Meyer came West a few years ago, built a few tracts in San Leandro and Hayward. But he was always looking for something better than the ordinary tract home—he was convinced folks would buy them.

In 1950 and 1951, he and Mrs. Meyer drove all over the East Bay in search of a place to put the dream subdivision. First they tried Concord, Walnut Creek and Danville. But that didn't appeal to the Meyers. It was too hot, too crowded, and television reception was poor.

One day in 1951 they drove to Centerville. Mrs. Meyers spotted a nest of pretty homes on Norris Road, just past Central.

"This is it, Jim," she declared. And so it was. Meyer and his scouts uncovered a 109-acre piece owned by a dairy further to the south, and they bought it.

Little more than a year ago, Glenmoor Homes started the first houses along Glenmoor Drive, then drove Norris Road across to Blacow. The faster Meyer & Co. built, the more they sold. And the unheard-of thing was that the more expensive houses they put up, the more expensive ones buyers wanted.

The first homes sold at around $14,000. Recent sales have been in the $20,000-plus bracket.

All the lots are quarter-acre size or larger, 75 feet wide and 120 feet deep. There are twelve basic plans, from 1200-square-footers at $14,250, to 2700 square feet at $32,000. (Haven't sold one of these yet.) And all can be modified to suit individual tastes.

Glenmoor has a Homes Owners' Association, which rules out chickens, horses or stray dogs, sees that lawns and shrubs are kept up. The Centerville School District has agreed to buy 10 acres—at Meyer's cost—to put up a grammar school, probably next year. And a 4-acre park, complete with tennis courts and swimming pool will start soon, maintenance costs to be paid by the association's $25 annual dues.

Just as convenient will be a 5-acre shopping center further south on Glenmoor Drive. Leases are being negotiated this week for a supermarket, drug store, barber shop and cleaning establishment, as well as one for a variety store. Meyer estimates work on the center will start in 60 days.

Progress of the tract has been steady. One hundred and ten homes are occupied now, 90 more are a-building. Glenmoor Homes has bought neighboring property, increased its holdings to 203 acres. A less-expensive tract is on the books across Blacow Road.

Buyers appear uniformly satisfied with their handsome homes. Says one woman from San Leandro, whose husband is an executive of a large firm, and who has owned houses in half-a-dozen communities:

"Finest place I've ever lived."

Meyers thinks so too. He thinks Washington Township can't be beat for climate, cleanliness, and general desirability as a suburban community.

Apparently there are enough folks with money to back up his belief.

5 HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENTS HERE

Washington Township was free of fatal—or even serious—accidents on its highways over the Labor Day week-end.

Three crashes involving injuries to drivers were reported.

Sunday afternoon a car containing three Mexican nationalists overturned during what witnessed described as a race down Niles-Alvarado Road. The spill occurred at Linda Drive and sent the three motorists to Fairmont Hospital with cuts and bruises.

Early Monday a motorcyclist, Dan Steele, 34, of Niles, was scratched and bruised in a headon downtown collision with a car driven by Elmer Williams, 57, of 100 Canyon Heights Drive.

And shortly after noon on Tuesday, Dario Isalas, 27, of 612 Fourth Street, Decoto, was severely cut about the head when, officers said, he turned his light pickup into the path of an asphalt truck driven by Harry H. Quaas, 37, of Hayward. The accident occurred on Fremont Avenue at Leask's Market.

it an attractive "Western" character by distinctive "oldtimer" painting of store fronts, remodeling, etc. All of which, he predicted, would attract trade.

Curbing along First Street at the Southern Pacific freight depot, and offstreet parking in SP rights-of-way in the block just east of I Street also came under discussion. These are being considered by the Niles Chamber, parent body of the merchant group.

Another topic introduced by Parks was enlarging of water mains and installation of larger hydrants, to cut insurance rates. It was agreed landowners would have to bear the bulk of the expense.

Finally, Parks named Baine Leask and Ted Econome to promote the "paint contest" for Halloween.

strips of skin for a belt.

Mrs. Cary's matter-of-fact approach to a situation that would floor most women is a natural outgrowth, she believes, of a life spent largely in the open. Last winter she lost three fingers on her left hand when a bumper-jack crushed them during a snowy trip to the Placerville cabin. But she plans to return there in a few weeks to ambush a marauding black bear. She intends to butcher and barbecue the prowler.

Mrs. Cary professes great affection for members of the animal kingdom. Niles Canyon residents will sleep easier, however, after hearing her views on the late snake.

"I felt sorry for the poor thing," she says. "I'd have let him loose, but he might have gone over to the neighbors'."

SUZY SEZ...

Ladies, you should be ashamed of yourselves! According to the Township distributor for a grocery company, many home-makers still are wearing house coats and pincurls at four-thirty in the afternoon. Is it any wonder some husbands keep asking what the little woman does all day, when she hasn't even dressed by the time he gets home!

* * * *

Seems like a family will go to great expense to fence the back yard, then their youngsters would rather play in some other yard, just out of range of mother's voice.

* * * *

The best idea I have seen in weeks is that of a working mother, who had trouble keeping up friendships, since she could not sit and gab on the telephone, after a day's work. Now, with the aid of a gadget that fits over her head and holds the phone for her, leaving both hands free, she prepares supper, bakes a pie, or washes dishes, and at the same time gets the neighborhood news.

* * * *

The shiny new cars on sale at Township dealers are so wonderful any girl should be proud to be seen walking home from a ride in one!

* * * *

Our favorite 'teen-ager spends so much time getting his hair in the proper wave before a date, that it's a revelation to me. I thought only females were fussy. But now that I think of it, men usually glance into every mirror they pass, and then make as many adjustments as any woman, to their hair, tie and collar.

* * * *

After a visit to the dentist, a friend in Warm Springs remarked that the inlay doesn't hurt as much as the outlay!

* * * *

This year, while shopping for school clothes, I noticed that more Township residents are patronizing local stores, where they can get service from salesmen they know, who really are interested in their particular needs. Before I left the house, I asked what each member of the family wanted for school, and our favorite ten-year-old said all that was necessary for him was the answer book!

* * * *

One of our family favorites, often served on Saturday nights, is hamburger buns split, covered with canned chili beans, and sprinkled with grated cheese. Some of us like bacon on top of the cheese, too. Broil until the cheese is melted, serve with tomato and cucumber wedges, and fresh fruit for dessert. Hungry?

* * * *

Our youngest noticed a cornflakes odor near Alvarado, and said it smelled like breakfast. The sugar factory was the source of the interesting odor. By the way, Washington Township is quite well seasoned, with both salt and sugar made here, and now I hear a field of garlic is to be added to round out the flavors.

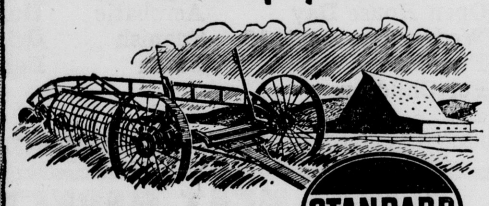
NILES FIREMEN

Niles firemen elected association officers last week for the coming year. Harold Enos is president, succeeding Stewart Wilkinson; Jack Parry succeeds Joe Janeiro as treasurer, and Caesar DiGiulio remains as treasurer.

How to prevent rusting of metal equipment



Apply Standard Utility Coating to metal roofing, orchard heaters, tanks, pipe, implements, etc., to protect them against the weather or dampness. It is a quick-drying asphaltic paint that may be applied by brush, spray or by dipping.

One coat gives 6 to 12 months protection against rust and corrosion on farm implements that must stand outside in the weather. Several coats on an underground storage tank make it last years longer.

LEGAL NOTICE

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE NILES SCHOOL DISTRICT 1953 SCHOOL BONDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda, State of California, at the office of the County Clerk and ex officio Clerk of said Board of Supervisors, in the Court House, 1225 Fallon Street, Oakland 7, Alameda County, California, on SEPTEMBER 29, 1953 at the hour of 11:00 o'clock A.M., (P.S.T.) for the purchase of $91,000.00 principal amount of the bonds of the Niles School District of Alameda County, State of California, more particularly described below:

ISSUE:
1953 School Bonds, $91,000.00, consisting of 91 bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, numbered 1 to 91, inclusive, all dated November 15, 1953 (being part of an issue of $150,000.00 authorized at an election held in said district June 16, 1953. The remaining bonds of said authorized issue will not be sold until after February 15, 1954.)

INTEREST RATE:
Maximum five per cent (5%) per annum, payable annually for the first year on November 15, 1954 and semi-annually thereafter on May 15th and November 15th in each year. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds. The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-quarter of one per cent per annum, payable as aforesaid.

MATURITIES:
Said bonds hereby offered for sale mature serially in consecutive numerical order, from lower to higher, $7,000.00 on November 15th in each of the years 1954 to 1963, both inclusive, $8,000 in each of the years 1964 and 1965, and $5,000.00 in the year 1966.

PAYMENT:
Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the County Treasurer of Alameda County, in Oakland, California.

REGISTRATION:
Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said school district. Such bonds are registerable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE:
Said bonds are authorized to be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for the following purposes:
The purchasing of school lots;
The building or purchasing of school buildings;
The making of alterations or additions to the the school building or buildings other than such as may be necessary for current maintenance, operation or repairs;
The supplying of school buildings with furniture or necessary apparatus of a permanent nature;
The permanent improvement of the school grounds; and
The carrying out of the projects or purposes authorized in Section 18010 of the Education Code, to wit, to provide sewers and drains adequate to treat and/or dispose of sewage and drainage on or away from school property.

SECURITY:
Such bonds are general obligations of said school district, and the Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said school district subject to taxation by said district (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS
In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax Laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may, at his option, prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION:
The legal opinion of Messrs. Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington & Sutcliffe, Attorneys at Law, of San Francisco, California, approving the validity of said bonds will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge, together with a certified copy of the transcript of proceedings.

The bonds will be awarded to the highest and best bidder considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the District would be required to pay from November 15, 1953 to the respective maturity dates of the bonds at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the District. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed between the dates aforesaid on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right, in its discretion, to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid,

The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than September 29, 1953. Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of Alameda County in Oakland, California, as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which, it is estimated, will be within forty (40) days of the date of sale, but not prior to November 15, 1953. The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within sixty (60) days of the date of sale and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the District.

All bids must be unconditional, for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County, State of California, and endorsed "Proposal for 1953 School Bonds of Niles School District of Alameda County." With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $1,000.00, drawn on a bank or trust company authorized to transact and transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the Treasurer of Alameda County, to secure said Niles School District from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the District on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the District. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon the deposit made by the successful bidder.

Information relative to the financial condition of said District will be furnished to any bidder upon request.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said District, or the title of the officers to their respective offices and said County will furnish to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

Dated: September 1, 1953.
JOHN JOSEPH KINGSTON
County Clerk and ex officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County, State of California.

IT'S UP TO THEM, TOO

The hullabaloo raised in foreign capitals by Secretary of State Dulles' comments on West Germany, Trieste and Japan brings into sharp relief the difficult, not to say impossible, role of the United States eight years after its dearly-bought victory in World War II.

In a Washington news conference, Dulles answered reporters' questions with statements that (1) he believed Chancellor Adenauer's defeat would "indefinitely postpone" a solution of the German problem, (2) the U. S. government has an "open mind" on the Trieste dispute between Italy and Yugoslavia, and (3) the U. S. hopes Japan will shoulder more of her defense burden and relieve us of it.

In West Germany, Italy and Japan, Dulles drew bitter replies, to the effect that the U. S. has no business interfering in the affairs of those countries. Adenauer's opponents vainly tried to make capital of the statement to claim that Adenauer is an American puppet. In Italy, many newspapers complained the U. S. is going back on its 1948 view that Trieste ought to be turned over to Italy.

In each case, resurgent nationalism called the tune of resentment against the U. S. Even worse, the music found echoes in London and Paris, where more charges of "interference" came from our sometime allies. It is as though we were the loser in World War II, with obligations to hold our tongue!

The demonstration was the second of its kind in the week. Earlier, Britain and others at the United Nations refused to support the U. S. in blocking India from taking part in the Korean peace conference. India has been a consistent leaner toward Red China, and rightfully was denied a seat as a neutral nation. But the British want above all to trade with Red China and Red Russia, while the French want to pull out of their expensive and frustrating war in IndoChina. Both call our stand against Red China "unrealistic," and in recent months Britain in particular has once more taken the appeasement line, just as though she never heard the word Munich.

Caught in the middle, between her enemies and her reluctant allies, what can be the position of the United States?

There are powerful elements in this country, especially in the Mid West, and the rural areas, which voice a growing disillusion with our role in foreign affairs. Junk the works and go it alone, they say. We've spent 45 billions in foreign aid since the war, and gotten slapped in the face for it. This position fails to take into account the fact that we need allies in a world of international bandits, if only to keep our flanks clear while we spar for time; also, that no matter how remote permanent peace may seem, we still have to work for it—and work collectively—or say yes to Mars and anarchy.

The position of the isolationists is made stronger by deliberate hostile interpretations such as Europe placed on Dulles' statements. They give Americans the impression that foreigners think we have no rights in the countries we spent so much blood and treasure to liberate. Dulles might not have been diplomatic in the striped-pants tradition. But he was being far more "realistic" than our minuet-dancing critics when he stated simply that America wants a reliable German government, the right to reserve judgment of Trieste, and a strong Japanese defense. Of course we want these safeguards. Aren't we entitled to them?

To say otherwise, or to straddle the fence, would be dishonest. And in a world tangled up in its own lies, hypocrisies and ancient rivalries, honesty and straightforward talk is not only the best, but the only policy which gives us a winning chance. It is a damn site more important than the tender feelings of tin-horn nationalists who refuse to admit any obligation to a country which has done so much to help them.

A MEMORIAL

Death of General Jonathan Wainwright recalls a brief interview we had with that noble, tragic figure a few years ago. We gained the impression that the general had never quite recovered from his degrading imprisonment, and that he was devoting the remainder of his life to gratitude over being home.

He seemed frail, easily moved to tears, and clung almost pathetically to small kindnesses shown him. He spoke of freedom, loyalty, the simple virtues, with the emotion of one who has seen them suppressed and denied, and who therefore knew their true value.

General Wainwright was a living symbol. He held a tender spot in the ashamed hearts of millions as a martyr to their selfishness and neglect in the years before the disaster which he did his best to salvage. May his memory never grow less.

MYSTERY MAN WAS CAMPUS GRID ACE

Did you guess who Herb Wilson was, last week? Try this week's thumbnail sketch of a Township figure and see if you recognize him without having to dig for the answer in the inside columns.

He was born in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1909, one of a family of six boys and two girls. His father was firechief of a West Side section of town.

Always athletic, our subject went out for a halfback's job as a freshman at famous Cathedral Latin School. In the school's first game against tough Glenview Hi, he scampered for three touchdowns, held the job from then on. He says it was his greatest thrill.

The school was an all-Ohio football champion for three years, and he captained the eleven. In 1927 they played for—and lost—the mythical U. S. high school championship at Waco, Texas. The winning team included such future college stars as Garrett Arbelbeide of USC.

At Kenyon College, where our subject went next, he was an all-State halfback too, once ran 98 yards to a touchdown against Cincinnati. He remembers coaching Bill Veeck, later boss of the Cleveland Indians and St. Louis Browns, in his senior year. He says Veeck had plenty of spirit. One night he fell four stories while climbing outside a fraternity house window, and when our man took him to the hospital, Veeck hobbled inside, on two broken ankles!

At a college dance, our Mystery Man met a pretty Cleveland girl who remembered him from high school days. Four years later they were married. On graduation, an alumnus gave him a job at the Wheeling Steel mill in Steubenville, Ohio.

In 1947, the family—now grown to include two girls and two boys—came West to escape the Ohio weather. First they settled in Fontana, then Niles. Mr. Mystery man now holds a responsible job with a huge local industry.

His interest in athletics is still keen, but centers on his older son, who shone in sports at Washington Hi, and who now attends a Bay Area university.

Fishing is our subject's principal diversion. As for football, he goes to most of the games, and thinks the new substitution rule change will be a help to the smaller schools.

He considers the outstanding person he knows to be Dr. William F. Pierce, former president of Kenyon.

Guess Who?

Dance Studio Set

Next Wednesday will see the opening of a dance studio in Irvington by Flora Lee Batsford of Oakland.

The studio will be next to the Leal Theater, at 145 Mission Road. Lessons in tap, ballet, acrobatic, hula, Spanish, ballroom, Oriental and baton dancing will be given to children and adults. Signups are from 1 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday.

Miss Batsford has been teaching dancing since 1920, and served as president of the Dance Masters of California in 1942. She has produced stage shows,

C.S.O. Meets Tonight
